Stolen Car and Burglary Investigation
UPDATE

The suspect from last night's stolen car and burglary incident was located and arrested.

Officers were dispatched to the area of Sedley Ct in Pewee Valley at 2:41 PM regarding a report of a suspicious person walking between homes. The individual was described as a white male wearing a green hoodie and a ball cap. He was located near 9300-B Ash Ave, by the old land fill. Initially, he denied his identity but later admitted his true identity.

Arrested is Michael J. Hulak, white male, 5-1-87, of Louisville KY.

Currently, he is charged with an E-Warrant for Parole Violation and KRS 523.110, Giving peace officer false identifying information. Additional charges are pending the investigation.

We want to thank all of those who called and gave us information concerning this incident.
