

Media Release

Fatal Collision Supplemental – April 11, 2022

The Oldham County Police Department would like to provide an update regarding the investigation into a fatal vehicle collision which occurred on November 10, 2021 in the 6200 block of U.S. 42 in Oldham County.

As described in a prior press release, the collision involved a 2011 Ram 1500 operated by Theresa Devine (43 years old from Goshen, KY), and a 2016 Mazda 3 operated by Zoe Fairfield (19 years old from La Grange, KY). The passenger in the Mazda 3, Lily Fairfield (16 years old from La Grange, KY) was killed in the collision. The driver of the Mazda 3 suffered serious physical injuries, as did a passenger in Devine's vehicle, Joshua Waits (40 years old from Shelbyville, KY).

As the result of the investigation conducted by the Oldham County Police Department, Theresa Devine was indicted on Friday, April 8, 2022 by the Oldham County Grand Jury for the following criminal offenses related to the collision:

- Murder
- Assault 1st degree (2 counts)
- Persistent Felony Offender 1st degree
- Wanton Endangerment 1st degree (7 counts)

The above information is related to an indictment only and the above party should be considered innocent pending subsequent court proceedings.

We would like to thank the following for providing assistance during the course of our investigation: Oldham County Coroner's Office, Oldham County EMS, North Oldham Fire Department, Oldham County Dispatch, Oldham County Sheriff's Office, Kentucky State Police Forensic Laboratory, Commonwealth Attorney's Office – 12th Judicial Circuit, and all other members of the community who provided assistance.